TASTING #1,465 - PREMIUM WHITE BURGUNDIES & CHARDONNAYS

6:00 p.m., Monday, July 23, 2007

at

The Carnelian Room Restaurant, located on the 52nd floor of the Bank of America Building
555 California Street, San Francisco

On July 23, in the spectacular Wine Room of the Carnelian Room, we will bring you a tasting of 12 premium wines made from the Chardonnay grape, by far the world's most popular varietal. The selection will span a host of terroirs, and we will experience the sublime perfection of some of the finest, including the phenomenally expensive grand cru white Burgundies from the magnificent 2005 vintage. A terrific opportunity to learn to identify acidity, fruit, tannins, alcohols and varietal characteristics so as to become more discerning tasters and consumers as we taste alongside, and sit with, some of California's foremost wine-makers and winery owners.

Ridge Vineyards, Monte Bello, Santa Cruz Mountains
Francois & Antoine Jobard, Meursault-Genevrieres, Premier Cru
Chateau Laboure-Roi, Corton Charlemagne, Grand Cru
Ceja Vineyards, Carneros, Napa Valley, 2005
Oakville Ranch, Napa Valley

Seco Highlands (Highland Estates), Arroyo Seco
Thomas Fogarty, Portola Springs Vineyard, Santa Cruz Mountains
Gundlach Bundschu, Rhinefarm Vineyard, Sonoma Valley

A separate glass will be provided for each wine (12 glasses for 12 wines) allowing us to compare them side-by-side and to experience their evolution as the evening progresses. Comfortable seating will allow us to enjoy the wines in a breath-taking location. White tablecloths will be used to highlight visual nuances, and Bremner wafers will be provided to refresh the palate.
